

EED WEEKLY EMAIL

DEPARTMENT OF ENGINEERING EDUCATION

Week of December 3rd, 2018

Announcements

- The OSU Food Bank was very appreciative of our generous food donation delivered last night. A special thanks to all donors! And congrats again to the outliers (Smith and Scott) for winning the competition!

Upcoming Events & Deadlines

1. The First-Year Engineering Program is hosting its first Software Design Project Game Night! The SDP Game Night will bring together the top student teams from the Fundamentals of Engineering I course in an arcade style event where attendees can play Matlab-developed games and vote for their favorites! The SDP Game Night will be on Thursday, December 6th from 3pm to 5pm in Scott Lab E100. Food and drinks will be provided so come celebrate the hard work and success of the FE 1181 students!
2. First Year Engineering Design Showcase April 22 4-8pm Drake Performance Hall

Opportunities for Excellence

- Please send this OSU MSE Clinical Faculty position to those who might be interested. Thanks! Please see attachment for Position.
- Designing Student-Centered Learning Experiences: a week-long interactive workshop for faculty teams engaged in curricular change initiatives at their institutions June 10 - 14, 2019.
 - Contact The Olin College Collaboratory collaboratory.olin.edu
 - Application here!
- Fulbright is seeking a specialist to travel to Colombia to conduct a five-week project on the topic of “Manufacture of Aircrafts Using Composite Materials”. Please review the attachment. Contact Margo N. Lipps or World Learning directly to learn more.
- The Office of Research facilitates the internal nomination process for certain types of funding opportunities to ensure compliance with the sponsor's guidelines, support our faculty research efforts, and promote scholarship & external recognition. Contact Samantha Grevas, grevas.3s@osu.edu, or Jeff Agnoli, agnoli.1@osu.edu with questions. Please see the attachment for funding information.

- Ohio State Energy Partners contributes $810,000 annually to the university or affiliated philanthropic causes as part of its academic collaboration with Ohio State. Working with OSEP, the Energy Academic Collaboration Council is engaging the Ohio State community in a request for proposals for FY 2019 funding that help advance important priorities across the university while also promoting inter-college and community collaboration. To be considered, the proposal must be submitted by a current Ohio State student, faculty member, or staff member; must not focus on coal or political advocacy; and must align with the University's Strategic Plan. Preference will be given to projects that engage the campus or broader community to promote internal and external collaboration. Funding levels range from $10,000 to $100,000 and will be awarded on a one-time basis. The online Award Application Form and details for funding levels, proposal deadlines, requirements and submittal information are at oaa.osu.edu/osep.
